The Ontario Track and Field Association

The Ontario Track and Field Association is a not-for-profit, government supported organization responsible for Track and Field in Ontario. We work with amateur athletes of all ages and abilities, providing them with a framework for development, and opportunities for success and fulfillment. Our programs include fitness initiatives for kids and high-performance programs for our next generation of Olympians. For further information contact us at: (416) 426-7215 or www.otfa.ca
